 Portsmouth, Virginia – A fixated Hillary Clinton lays her latest deceitful groundwork for 2016 with an email from Secretary of State John Kerry’s 1991 personal secretary to the Department of Justice.

The document contains a 12-year-old, secret, classified email from Kerry’s personal secretary, Robin Traynor, addressed to a senior DOJ official,不怕匹配在数据库中。该邮件包含一串密码，对公开透明的政府运作构成了威胁。Traynor’s email，被标记为“机密”和“秘密”，暗示了对国家安全的潜在风险。

The email appears to be part of a series of communications between Kerry’s staff and the DOJ, raising concerns about the handling of classified information.

According to a source familiar with the matter, the email was sent in response to a request for information from Kerry’s office regarding a particular issue. The source said the email included sensitive details that were classified at the time of transmission.

Hillary Clinton has faced persistent scrutiny over her use of a private email server while she served as secretary of state. Critics argue that these emails, many of which were marked classified, demonstrate a lack of transparency and raise serious questions about her handling of sensitive information.

The email in question has been described by some as the “smoking gun” that supports the argument that Clinton was improperly storing government secrets. However, Clinton’s campaign has refuted these claims, arguing that the email was a private correspondence and did not contain classified information.

The issue remains a significant point of contention in the ongoing debate over Clinton’s suitability for the presidency. The release of this email has the potential to reignite the debate, especially as the 2016 election draws closer.

As the campaign heats up, Clinton’s handling of classified information continues to be a central issue. The latest email adds to the ongoing controversy, further complicating the narrative surrounding Clinton’s tenure as secretary of state.

The full contents of the email have not been made public, and the source of the document remains confidential. The implications of the email, however, are significant and could have far-reaching consequences for Clinton’s campaign and the broader political landscape.

Newman, for his part, believes public schools deliberately try to conceal some of the nobler aspects of the Founding Fathers from students.

“The founding-era presidents and framers bequeathed to the American people the most ingenious form of government ever devised by the mind of man, a system that decentralized power and protected our God-given rights for centuries,” Newman declared. “And that is exactly why the government schools do not teach these truths. If the American people do not realize what they had even rights for centuries,” Newman declared. “And that is exactly why the government schools do not teach these truths. If the American people do not realize what they had – a constitutional republic that was the product of thousands of years of advancing civilization, something unprecedented in the history of man – they will not understand what they are in the process of having stolen from them right this minute.”

The answer, according to Newman, is to realize the government schools have failed and doubled down on efforts to teach future generations about the virtues of the men who founded the United States.

“There is no reason to downplay their shortcomings – the founders and even America’s greatest presidents were still human, after all,” Newman said. “But those failings should be put into context, and to focus only on those while ignoring the courage, genius, character, wisdom, and heroism of men like Washington, Adams, and Jefferson is to literally rob Americans of their birthright. Parents, teach your children, because the government schools won’t do it.”

Takei, the gay lobby and the left at large are of course operating upon the premise that homosexuality is “normal and natural.” The determination of normacy for every bizarre alphabet designation they contrive is completely arbitrary. The left decree them as “normal” because it legitimizes demonizing their opponents; biological convention and millennia of historical evidence that affirm homosexuality’s destructive effect upon societies be damned.

Finally, as we’ve heard floated by some on the left lately: Deviation from this new “truth” is not only bigoted, but reflects deviant mental processes – ones that could be remedied quite effectively in a re-education camp.
The “gay rights movement” has never, ever been about the civil rights of America’s minuscule population of homosexuals. It is about conditioning people of faith (Christians, speaking tactically) into accepting State revision of their doctrine.

This would effectively make the State “god” in the operational sense – but that’s how it has always played out with communism.

The new Norwegian Prime Minister, Erna Solberg, began a program that deports Muslims who have ties to radical groups and the country’s violent crimes are down more than 31%.

A resident of Oslo, Norway named Adrian Stavig said something that Obama never would:

“The world’s largest gang of thugs, murderers, and rapists is masquerading as a religion of peace.”

California’s water storage and transportation system designed by federal and state governments includes 1,200 miles of canals and nearly 50 reservoirs that provide water to about 22 million people and irrigate about four million acres of land throughout the state.

In May 2007, a Federal District Court Judge ruled that increased amounts of water had to be re-allocated towards protecting the Delta smelt – a three-inch fish on the Endangered Species List.

Because of this ruling, in 2009 and 2010 more than 300 billion gallons (or 1 million acre-feet) of water were diverted away from farmers in the Central Valley and into the San Francisco Bay – eventually going out into the Pacific Ocean.

This man-made drought cost thousands of farm workers their jobs, inflicted up to 40 percent unemployment in certain communities, and fellowed hundreds of thousands of acres of fertile farmland.

yet you progressives are running around claiming this is all about global warm......uh “climate change”, oh and Dent, if my insurance triples, so does yours cupcake!

(Obama oversees the largest prison break in US history, of violent and dangerous criminals)
In an exclusive interview with WND, he stated: “What we have in England is typically Islamic treatment of infidel women coupled with the offenders themselves behaving as if they were in a country already conquered for Dar-al-Islam. Elsewhere in the Third World there are, of course, massive abuses and exploitation of girls and young women, but such willful and systematic rape of white infidel girls and women by Muslim men is a pathology unique to Islam. It was made ‘licit’ by their ‘prophet.’”

Geller similarly judges that “the Quran allows Muslims to keep non-Muslim women as sex slaves (4:3, 4:24, 23:1-6, 33:50). The kidnapping and forcing into sex slavery of non-Muslim women in Nigeria and Iraq and Syria over the last year corresponds to the grooming gangs in the U.K.”

A series of three informational analysis articles on the Fatah organization, and the globally taught principle of Fitna which is revealed as the catalyst for Islamic violence:

Examination of the official Fatah symbol

Now we’ll come to the heart of the matter – a detailed analysis of the Fatah symbol. Again, the purpose of this evaluation is to help determine whether Fatah is really moderate (or not).

Note: The official slogan of Fatah, which is Ya Jabal Ma Yhezak Reeh (The Mountain Cannot be Shaken by the Wind), is not included on the official Fatah symbol.

1. The large black word across the middle of the symbol says Fatah.
2. The red words across the top of the symbol say Al-Asifah (The Storm), discussed above.
3. The borders of the intended State of Palestine are shown in green. As mentioned earlier, the Fatah symbol shows the entire area of modern Israel, as well as Gaza and the West Bank, as part of the final State of Palestine. Since this symbol was designed well before the 1967 Six-Day War, it becomes obvious that Fatah has never given any serious consideration to the concept of a “Two-State Solution.”
4. Two flags of the intended State of Palestine.
5. Two hands grasping two assault rifles.
6. A hand grenade (nothing shouts “Moderate!” like a hand grenade).
7. The single Arabic word under the grenade also says Fatah.
8. The words in the black band at the bottom of the symbol say Ḥarakat At-Tahrir Al-Waṭani Al-Filasṭini (Palestinian National Liberation Movement); in the literal translation, the word order is exactly opposite.
9. The three words at the bottom of the flag say Thawrah Hatteh Al-Naser (Revolution Until Victory)
